

Name:

Chapter 4 Industrialization and Nationalism

Chapter Review

1. Consider worker conditions in Great Britain's new factories' during the Industrial Revolution. Why do you think factory bosses imposed such strict rules on workers?
2. Identify the 6 contributing factors necessary in order for the process of industrialization to occur in Great Britain in the late 19th century.
3. Explain the relationship between cotton, coal, and factories during the Industrial Revolution.
4. Describe the importance of the railroads in the growth of cities in Europe and the United States.
5. Analyze how the Industrial Revolution changed the way families lived and worked.
6. What kind of working conditions did children face in the factories during the early Industrial Revolution?
7. How did the Crimean War destroy the Concert of Europe?
8. How did Napoleon III achieve success during the first years of his rule?
9. How did romanticism compare to the ideas of the Enlightenment?
10. How did the theory of natural selection influence the way people saw the world?